Michael

I called the meeting with you and others last Thursday, 3 December 2009 to investigate the possibility of working collaboratively with you in the fight against vilification and the promotion of inclusion.

You have shown by your conduct since the meeting that you do not wish to work in this manner; rather you continue to criticise, undermine and discredit the JCCV and me to a wide distribution list.

I have now formed the view that I cannot work in partnership with you. I will of course continue to oppose vilification in all forms and will seek others from the Jewish GLBT community with whom I can work productively for the benefit of all concerned.

Yours sincerely

John Searle
President
